

20 BOURBON & BOWTIES 24

DISTILLERY PARTNERSHIP REGISTRATION

Limited Opportunities Available

The proceeds from Bourbon & Bowties will be dedicated to the new Samaritan Hospital to ensure that the equipment and technology our region needs and deserves is provided. #BUILDCOMMUNITY.

distillery partnerships are available—to claim your official partnership for the 2024 Bourbon & Bowties Gala, please complete the form below and return it to the Foundation office. Registration deadline is February 28, 2024.

For any questions regarding partnership opportunities and the event as a whole, please feel free to contact Samaritan Healthcare Foundation at 509-793-9645.

2024 PARTICIPATION

- Participating distilleries will host a serving station and pour .5 oz. tastings of selected bourbon or whiskey for guests. If distillery is unable to provide a staff member or representative from the organization for the event, participant is responsible for finding licensed replacement (Please note: volunteer or organizational representative must be at least 21 years of age.)
- Social hour will be open to all guests 5:30-7p. Beverage service will be transitioned to the main event space when guests move over for dinner. Upon beginning of the program, any remaining product may be transferred to the community pouring location in the main event room.
- All participating distilleries must be compliant with Washington State LCCB, and will serve alcohol under official event permit.
- This is a charity event and therefore all participating distilleries will be asked to donate any product that is poured for guests beyond the official 'Social Hour'. (Samaritan Healthcare Foundation is 501(C)(3) non-profit, tax receipts will be available upon donation confirmation and/or receipt of product.)
